

The Institute of Buddhist Studies & BCA Center for Buddhist Education present

SUMMER PACIFIC SEMINAR - 21ST CENTURY

SHIN BUDDHISM: Current Challenges and Future Prospects

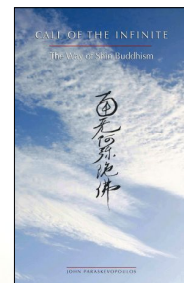

August 18-20, 2017

Keynote Speaker:

Rev. John Paraskevopoulos

An ordained Shin Buddhist priest based in Australia and author of Call of the Infinite: The Way of Shin Buddhism, The Fragrance of Light, and The Unhindered Path. He holds a first-class honors degree in Philosophy from the University of Melbourne in Australia and is editor of the online Journal of Shin Buddhism (Muryoko).

Other Speakers and Guests:

Thais Campos

A Shin practitioner living in Brasilia, Brazil. She graduated from the University of South Santa Catarina (UNISUL) with a Bachelor's Degree in Philosophy, and her passion for Eastern Philosophy led her to Shin Buddhism by way of the Honpa Hongwanji Temple of Brasilia.

David Quirke-Thornton

A member of the Shin Buddhist Fellowship United Kingdom: Chomon House. Formerly a Franciscan Friar, David trained as a Buddhist Chaplain at The Buddhist Society in London and served as chaplain to the Police. David has a keen interest in Inter-Faith and Intra-Buddhist relations.
